Barony of Southron Gaard
MAY AS XLI (2006)

Chronicler's Corner

How did it get to be May so quickly? Where did the year go?

As the colder weather creeps up on us, I am reminded that I need to get some cold weather garb organized, finish my cloaks and make a hood.

Maybe if I am lucky I will get them done in time for summer?

Their Excellencies

Speak....

Lest it escape your attention -- in the past three months, Southron Gaard has had three new peers recognised among its populace.

At Canterbury Faire, Mistress Eleonora van den Bogaerde, our founding Baroness, was recognised as a member of the Order of the Laurel, and Mistress Roheisa le Sarjent as a member of the Order of the Pelican. And at Festival last week, Sir Vitale Guistiniani was also elevated to the Order of the Pelican, to much acclaim.

These are superb achievements by the individuals concerned and a great boon to the Barony that we have such riches among us.

Of equal note is that each of these gentles was receiving their second peerage, making them three of only five double-peers in these islands (the first, in 2003, was Mistress Marienna Jensdatter from Darton and her lord, Sir Asbjorn Pedersen, was also made a Pelican at Festival).

To the rest of us, the message is this:

First, these are people who have given much to the Barony, whether through craft or teaching, displays of their skill or concerted, consistent service. We owe them much, and have been privileged to share over the years in the fruits of their work.

Just as importantly, if you need an example of what can be achieved through research, dedication and effort in this society, look no further. While perfection is neither possible nor required, these three are each examples of what it is to be very, very good in their various fields.

And every one of them would willingly stand ready to assist you to achieve the same goals..

From the Seneschal

The month of May comes around, and the first signs of winter begin to appear. Now is the time when we all sit wrapped up warm inside and do all those indoor projects we started a long ago and never got around to finishing. Making some warm winter garb sounds very appealing after the stories of very cold nights at Festival, not to mention the numerous events coming up this winter.

We have our Yule event in July, a coronation in the wet Waikato and St Kessog's first ever feast in cold Dunedin. Ordo Cygni is also having a repast in May, and their annual mid winter Lindisfarne encampment on Queen's birthday weekend. And if you are still warm after all that, St Kessog is having a camp at the end of July in Dunedin.

And while technically outside the SCA, there is also New Zealand's first WMA convention in Waiwera in July. Later in July there is also proposed weekend long WMA course in Christchurch to be taught by the internationally known and published author Paul Wagner. It will be a busy winter indeed!

Of course the big news for most of us is our recent victory over Ynys Fawr at Festival. A record number of our populace attended and we got many comments about our pageantry and style. Big congratulations must go out to Sir Vitale, who is now a member of the Order of the Pelican. He has been a very valuable and contributing member of the Barony for many years, and deserves all the acclaim he has received.

Southron Gaard has also put in a very grand bid for July Coronation next year. This will require a team effort from a large number of people for it to work. So whether you are good at organising, decorating, cooking or just carrying heavy stuff, any offers of help will be greatly appreciated.

Yours in Service,
Peregrine Flamstead

SCANZ Representative Needed

The SCANZ committee needs a second representative from Southron Gaard to replace Alasdair Muckart, whose term has ended late last year.

Terms are for three years, and the job requires regular email access and a good working knowledge of the SCA. The ability to travel inter-island once a year for the AGM is important, but not absolutely essential. A good understanding of how the SCA operates and a head for organisation are also important. This is a position in the mundane organisation and has no bearing on, or requirement for "in-game" rank.

Interested parties can contact the committee with expressions of interest or questions on committee@sca.org.nz. Information on the SCANZ can be found at www.sca.org.nz

The applicant will ultimately be selected by a vote of the Southron Gaard membership.

The Fruits of War

(Words not spoken at Festival Closing Court due to lack of time)

The combined forces of the Crescent Isles are both honoured and fortunate to have gained victory on the battlefield this weekend, with the assistance of such stalwart allies, and against such dedicated and noble opponents. We salute you all and also our War Marshal, Edmund, Baron of Politarchopolis for devising the scenarios we were all privileged to enjoy.

As a consequence of this war, Southron Gaard has gained a worthy citizen, and are also now obliged to pay Their Majesties a new tax at July Coronation in Cluain. But despite this, we forswear any increase in the lands we hold in fief from Their Majesties. For this War was not about Lands, and most especially not about lines on a map.

Instead, it was a war about inspiration, motivation, about joy, creativity and, ultimately, love -- the love of a Dream which has brought so many of us to Festival this weekend.

That love, and that inspiration, has seen created in the Kingdom this past year no end of enterprises and opportunities, more than I can possibly list. But among its more visible fruits are the mighty banners you see flying behind you, created with the support of the Rowany Fighter Auction fund, and intended as a gift from the people of the Crescent Isles to those whose devices you see depicted upon them. Banners which I am very sure will be joined by a host more at Festival next.

There have been songs, there have been beautifully illuminated maps and scrolls, there have been words heaped upon words; there have been jokes, and oaths, and tokens, and fighters, young or old, climbing into armour for the first time to defend their lands.

But much more significantly, this war has helped to motivate people to arm themselves -- with weapon, or needle, or song, or ideas -- and to travel with them. At this Festival there are more than twice as many people from the Crescent Isles, and more than twice as many people from Ynys Fawr, than have ever attended Festival before.

And their physical presence is only the beginning, for in their time here they have both widened and deepened the ties of knowledge and affection, loyalty, culture and comradeship which serve to underpin and to strengthen this Kingdom. And thus you will see more of these folk at future Festivals and other events in these lands, and we will right gladly see more of you at Midwinter Coronation in Cluain, at Darton Anniversary in August, at November Crown in Ynys Fawr, or at Canterbury Faire next year.

And whether ally or foe on the warfield today, we shall always be comrades and friends. For an SCA war is like no other, and should never be confused with any other. For in these wars, my foe can kill me in the morning, teach me in the afternoon, and sing with me in the evening.

And I would not have it any other way.

Long Live Lochac!
