Chronic Ramblings

Midwinter has passed us, and with it Midwinter Coronation! I suspect there is still some sting in the tail of the weather yet though. However, we are now enroute to Spring – and I suspect that means Canterbury Faire is only just over 2 weeks away... see the first advertisement this issue! You know how you always run out of time to make that new item? You could start on it now while it's cold, AND enter it in the new Baronial A&S challenge – which looks awesome! And I'm sure will ultimately add depth and richness to the game. See more details from page 8 onwards.

Yours in Service,

Agnes Graye

Please send award recommendations to crown@lochac.sca.org with a courtesy copy to B&B@sg.lochac.sca.org.

Please check Lochac Cannon Lore for an individual's existing awards and information about awards, additional information can be found on the Kingdom website: www.lochac.sca.org

Baron and Baroness Southron Gaard

Greetings all!

Midwinter Coronation is done and dusted. We had so much positive feedback about the event, and we were even more pleased that people had taken the time to personally thank the stewards and cooks. Being part of that event in the history of the Kingdom was a privilege and We would like to thank Baroness Agnes, THL Elizabetta and their hard-working team for first having the moxie to bid for the event, and then the incredible skill, attitude and determination to pull it off and leave everyone with a truly memorable experience. Well done!

And Oh My God the food! Those peas! And the mutton stew! And the garlic sauce on the beef! Duck pie (OMG the duck pie!) And those peas! And the apple muse and rose biscuits! OM NOM NOM NOM! The soteltie was brilliant and We loved hearing notes of surprise and joy from the children as they explored it.

Some of our personal highlights were seeing those deserving of honour recognised with awards. It's always moving in different ways when we get to observe these ceremonies, sometimes giddy with joy, sometimes brought to laughter and often deeply touched by how surprised the recipients are. We wish that you all could see the faces as We do as these moments are truly wonderful. Our hearty congratulations go to all who received awards during the event, but if you think there are others deserving of honour then make sure to let the Crown know by writing a recommendation. If you're not sure how there is an online form available at <https://lochac.sca.org/canon/recommend.php>, and We would be happy to discuss what the awards mean at any time. We always appreciate a copy of the award recommendations, but it is not mandatory. This allows Us to get Our thoughts together and provide additional information to Their Majesties if they request it.

Also at the event it was wonderful to be able to announce the new Baronial Arts and Science Challenge, formulated by Lady Amabilla, Meisterin Christian and Mistress Isabel Maria. We hope that many will take up the challenge to learn about aspects of other peoples personas and different aspects of history that might normally be outside their usual interests. We had the opportunity to read the draft brief and were impressed with the plethora of witty quotes they have selected.

Our event Calendar is somewhat sparse with the exception of Fiery Knights in mid-September and Canterbury Faire in January. We know there are bids out there because we heard all about them during the planning meeting early in the year, so if you are considering an event we'd encourage you to get your bids to Council as soon as you can. The process is not onerous and just involves coming up with the concept, putting together a budget (which usually requires figuring out a venue at least) and presenting the bid. The seneschal, reeve and other officers can help with any questions you might have, and We are happy to provide feedback if you want to run anything past us. The more opportunities we have to get together the better. They say "idle hands are the devil's playground" and without events to keep Ginevra occupied it's possible mischief may be afoot. Do not be surprised if sheep or rooster costumes appear for the Court for Faire. Probably knitted.

Speaking of Faire, We have seen various calls for volunteers, and We know that many positions have been filled but more help is always needed. In particular meals need head cooks. Even if someone has already volunteered for a job you thought you might do there may be room for a deputy, so make yourself known and join the team. Just email the steward, Mistress Aveline, and she'll find you something to do.

This has been a long column so we'll just quickly mention the Baronial Survey which is still open as We write this. There has already been a lot of feedback, and We welcome your thoughts. We thank you if you have already contributed but if you haven't and you don't see this before the survey closes, please know that We and the other officers are always willing to discuss things that can improve the group.

In Service to the Crown,

Ginevra and Richard

Baron and Baroness, Southron Gaard

Fibre Guild

The Southron Gaard fibre guild is open to everyone that has an interest in making and playing with fibre: spinners, dyers, weavers, braiders and the like. Our meetings are usually the third Sunday of the Month at 11:00 am in the Redwood Scout Hall. Bring what you're working on, any new resources to share etc.

For more details, please see the Southron Gaard Calendar - <http://sg.sca.org.nz/calendar.shtml>

The Lochac Fibre Guild has an email list at <http://lochac.sca.org/mailman/listinfo/fibreguild> and webpage at <http://fibre.lochac.sca.org/> which features a monthly "award cord" tutorial.

The Southron Gaard 'branch' also has a Yahoo group list at https://groups.yahoo.com/neo/groups/SG_String/info, and now a Trello board that you can request access to by emailing Her Excellency, Baroness Ginevra, at g.devisconti@gmail.com.

Midwinter Coronation AS LIV

The event took place at the Waipara Riverside Park over the weekend of 12-14 July 2019. Friday evening saw a tavern style meal and relaxed revel, made much awesomer with the addition of braziers supplied by Cesare d'Orso. Saturday was the Coronation itself, various courts and meetings and awards, a list of which will hopefully follow in the next issue. The coronation feast was cooked by THL Elisabetta Foscari and a team of helpers, and the duck pie was much lauded as a highlight. The feast was served onto tables set with hand-sewn blackworked Tudor style napkins and handpainted souvenir glasses, and thereafter followed a soteltie (by Lady Ceina of Ballyhawke) all in the style of the ivy motif (because it was ASLIV, see?)

As both your editor, steward and originator of the ivy plan, the soteltie being created as a reflection of the design that Lord Ronan mac Briain created for us was a particular highlight and such a wonderful way to bring the event full circle.

Sunday featured tourneys and the rain decided to hold off for us, which was much appreciated, as were the efforts of all who assisted (there's a lot of you and we love you all)

Were you hoping to see your photo here? I'd love to publish them, but I can't without your permission, and that of anyone else identifiable. If you have pictures from an event you love, please submit them! - Agnes

Nice Little Touches:

the Southron Gaard “Persona Gubbins*”

A&S Challenge

“The object of art is to give life a shape.”

We know that sometimes people find it hard to “use” their persona at events, or to make their persona relevant to their SCA “game play”. In this challenge we invite you to use your persona (or someone else’s) to investigate that persona’s world, in order to create small items that you might carry to or use at events to enhance our SCA “game”.

*Gubbins, meaning small items, easily picked up and carried about (mid-16th century word, from the obsolete gobbon ‘piece, slice, gob’, from Old French; probably related to gobbet). Not to be used in connection with live small animals.

Thanks to Shakespeare and others for the quotes used here throughout.

This Challenge is brought to you by Meisterin Christian Baier, Baroness Isabel Maria del Aguila, Lady Amabillia Threxton, under the gracious patronage of Her Excellency Baroness Ginevra.

We would like to thank Lady Cecily for the inspiration of her excellent and amusing A&S Pentathlon upon which we have shamelessly, but with permission, borrowed.

Some of our local Southron Gaard Laurels have generously offered to award small prizes or tokens to the entry of their choice.

The Challenge:

What to enter:

You may enter the challenge by completing one (or more) small objects or items from the categories below.

“Small” may be defined as you choose, and may include “medium”, “large”, and “gosh, look at the size of that thing” projects.

Entries should be new projects (i.e. not entered in previous competitions / challenges).

All items should be for use at an SCA event.

Items may be for your persona, or for the persona of the person for whom the item is intended.

Who can enter: Anyone!

Entries are welcomed from adults, children and youth.

For any who are not members of the populace of Southron Gaard, please note that her Excellency has decided this Challenge is also open to entry from those not resident in our fair Barony, as it is not your fault that you are so disadvantaged.

Items may be made or performed by an individual, or by a group.

How to enter:

Submit (to the Challenge blog) the following:

1) a photograph of the item, and

2) a few brief notes about the item and the persona that inspired it.

You might find the form below useful as to suggested content of those notes. Formal documentation is not required, but is welcome (because we're all curious people who want to read it).

Child and youth entries should be entered with assistance of parents.

When to enter: Enter now!

All projects must be completed by Baronial Anniversary 2020.

Your recognition: All entrants will be awarded a special token at Baronial Anniversary 2020.

Those entrants who complete three projects, and those who complete five projects, from at least two distinct categories listed below, will receive an additional token.

Some of our local Southron Gaard Laurels will also offer small prizes or tokens to the entry of their choice.

Categories:

1. Do you think because you are virtuous, that there shall be no more cakes and ale?

An item of food or drink your persona may have grown, prepared, consumed, or known of.

2. With silken coats, and caps, and golden rings, with ruffs, and cuffs, and farthingales, and things.

A garment your persona may have worn.

3. When I am forgotten, as I shall be, and sleep in dull cold marble, ... Say, I taught thee.

The teaching or sharing of knowledge or skills that your persona would have had, for example, classes, published articles etc.

4. With scarfs, and fans, and double change of bravery, With amber bracelets, beads, and all this knavery.

An accessory your persona may have owned, made, used, or gifted.

5. All the world's a stage, and all the men and women merely players.

A performance of a persona-appropriate piece (song, poem, play, saga, tale, dance, etc); formal or informal, individual or group.

6. What revels are in hand? Is there no play, To ease the anguish of a torturing hour?

Games, toys, and other such entertainments.

7. 'Fore God, you have here a goodly dwelling and a rich.

Items your persona may have had in their home: housewares, furniture, feast gear, table wear, lighting, and such like.

8. This is the excellent foppery of the world

Develop a repertoire of vernacular language, appropriate to your persona, for use at events, e.g. oratory, witticism, oaths, braggery, vernacular phrases, boasts, etc.

9. To gild refined gold, to paint the lily, To throw a perfume on the violet,...

At your toilette: hairstyling, make up, beauty products, skincare, ointments, unguents, perfumes, etc. Also items associated with bathing, cleanliness, etc: e.g. soaps, cleaning tools or products, laundering, etc for people, houses, livestock etc.

10. Is this a dagger I see before me?

Items for self-defence or martial activities.

11. Get thee to a nunnery

Religious or spiritual items, e.g. memento mori, devotional items, etc.

12. A garish flag, to be the aim of every dangerous shot.

An item of heraldic display.

13. Throw physic to the dogs; I'll have none of it.

Items associated with health, medicine, or wellbeing.

14. I do remember an apothecary...

And in his needy shop a tortoise hung,
An alligator stuff'd, and other skins
Of ill-shaped fishes; and about his shelves
A beggarly account of empty boxes,
Green earthen pots, bladders and musty seeds,
Remnants of packthread and old cakes of roses,
Were thinly scatter'd to make up a show.

An item used in an occupation, trade, or task, e.g. a tool, equipment, etc.

15. I'll note you in my book of memory

A written item or document of some kind, e.g. a letter, a piece of calligraphy and illumination, etc. In particular, we would also encourage you to put together your own commonplace book or similar item relevant to your persona (a commonplace book is a collection of notable extracts from other works, and everyday handy knowledge for your personal use at events e.g. song lyrics, game instructions, recipes to share, etc).

SCA (NZ) Inc. Membership

There are two different types of membership available to event participants in New Zealand.

Subscribing Membership

Grants full rights of participation in the SCA (including voting, entering Crown Tournaments, holding office and affiliate membership with overseas branches). Subscribing membership also includes a subscription to Pegasus, the Lochac Kingdom Newsletter which is an electronic newsletter (PDF).

1 Year with E-Pegasus*	$ 15.00
3 Years with E-Pegasus	$ 30.00

A SCA (NZ) Inc. membership form is included on the final page of this newsletter, or can be accessed on the SCA (NZ) website.

Event Membership

For all non-members aged 18 years or over attending an event. Event membership lasts for the duration of that event only and is not sufficient to hold office or fight in Crown Tournament etc. If the event has a cost, and it is not held by a College, the levy will be charged.

Per event $ 2.00

Southron Gaard Council Provisional Minutes

10th July 2019 Meeting Minutes.

Present: Richard, Ginevra, Lisa, Elena, Jane.

Apologies: Elisabetta, Adrienne, Rosa.

7:33 pm Meeting opens.

5 officers are here so quorum is met.

1. Last Meetings minutes: Elena moves to accept the last meeting minutes

Richard seconds it. All in favour- last month's meeting minutes pass.

2) Business arising:

Festi di Natale: We can't accept the report until the money has been received.

Follow up with Thorvaldr, follow up with Cesare- possibly at Coronation.

BA Final Report: haven't seen one from Clarel yet. Can't give Clarel the refund until Lisa receives a working bank account number. Eleya will follow up with Clarel via email.

So two event reports to follow up on overall.

Gildenwick- also still need to follow up on the new point of contact.

3) Funding Request: None

4) Event Proposals: None

5) Event Report: Canterbury Faire update:

The focus for CF 2020 preparations over the last month has been recruitment of team members and ensuring that hire equipment has been booked (and deposits paid for the site and marquee hires). The shuttle and driver have been confirmed for Sunday 26th Jan.

Volunteers welcomed to the team over the last few weeks include:

- Paul and Greta as Gate Stewards, THL Elisabetta has been confirmed for Herald Coordinator, THL Kamara Skleraina has been confirmed as Chores Coordinator. Master Sebastian has confirmed his willingness to make tokens for the event, Mistress Taddea has been confirmed as Bunkroom coordinator (in addition to being Feast Cook, isn't she wonderful?).

Sir Ratbod has been confirmed for Heavy combat coordinator. Master James has been confirmed for Rapier combat coordinator, Lady Margaretta is willing to be the contract for loaner garb for our attendees.

Master Llewellyn has volunteered for a day steward or site steward role (TBC which direction will be taken here.) They join our existing team of Lady Rosa (Booking Steward), Lady Vigdis (Meal Plan Coordinator), Mistress Taddea (Feast Cook), Lord Tetsu (Combat/Target Archery coordinator) and Lady Clarel (Ball Coordinator). I very much look forward to working with the team, and with roles remaining to be filled recruitment will continue. Lord Tetsu is working on the event image for the souvenirs, and I anticipate that bookings for the event will open next month (August).

En Service,

Mistress Aveline Goupil.

6) Officer Reports:

B and B: Correspondence about Coronation. Attended Yule, monthly tournament, Had a donation of garb from Solvi. Went to A & S practice night at Vigdis'. Reviewing poll results as they come out.
