Chronicler's Corner

Greetings to all the new Officers who have stepped up to new positions. The SCA cannot function without the help of those who volunteer to do the organisational stuffs.

Of course, it also cannot function without people to turn up and make it the fun we all like to indulge in.

Heres to us !

Their Excellencies

Speak....

Baronial Anniversary has just passed and we could not have asked for a more enjoyable event. We were very pleased to see so many gentles competing for the honour to be our Barony's Champions, and delighted to see so many new faces, not least the large group who visited from St Kessog.

And so to Festival. Over a dozen Southron Gaarders will be attending this year, and well over two dozen from these Isles in total. The occasion for the marked increase in attendance is the war declared between Ynys Fawr and the three Crescent Isles groups, but it is also a natural consequence of the widening and deepening ties between the different parts of the Kingdom.

This was also evidenced by the record number of visitors from Continental Lochac at Canterbury Faire. All spoke highly of our encampment, and thus we are likely to see further growth in distant travellers attending. We will be continuing to count on your good offices to make people new to our barony -- whether temporary visitors or a newcomer taking those first steps into our world -- as welcome as possible.

Winter approaches and, with it, St Kessog's First Feast in May, then our Quarter Day Yule Celebration in the Levant, followed soon afterwards by July Coronation in Ildhafn's Canton of Cluain. If you have not yet experienced the grandeur of a Crown event, the latter will be an excellent opportunity. We hope the Barony will host a Crown event in the not-too-distant future and in good time will be calling for aid, assistance and advice as to that.

Arts & Sciences Workshop

Late Period Hairstyles

Terese de la Maunche (mka Meredith Hart) will be hosting a class on late period hairstyles on Saturday April 22nd, commencing at 2pm.

The class will take place at the home of Terese and Adele in Phillipstown. Numbers are limited to 8. If you would like to attend please email Terese - xanthe@paradise.net.nz.

The focus will be on styles for mid length and long hair, with particular reference to hairtaping. Attendees need to bring a hairbrush, hair ties, pins, a blunt needle and a long ribbon or tape if they wish to try hairtaping.

Please feel free to bring images of styles you would like to try out to share. To attend you will need to be comfortable with touching other people's hair and with having your own hair touched as more complex styles are likely to require assistance.

Avril of Didham

From the Seneschal

Hello, and welcome to my first column for FTT. For those members of the populace who haven't already heard, my name is Peregrine Flamstead and I am the new Seneschal of Southron Gaard. I thought I would begin this first column with a brief introduction about myself and how I got involved in the SCA.

In 1999, while still in high school, I joined a steel weapons re-enactment group in Auckland, where little else was done besides fighting. In 2001 I moved to Christchurch to attend university and was introduced to the SCA for the first time. Along with this came an introduction to all the other things the SCA has to offer; all the various arts and sciences and non-combat activities.

At the start of my second year of university I met a few other people interested in steel fighting, and so Ordo Cygni was born as a weekly steel-weapons fighter's practice. Later on, Ordo Cygni grew to encompass arts & sciences and various other medieval pursuits besides fighting. I served as the president of Ordo Cygni for two years before graduating in 2004 with a Bachelor of Engineering in Electrical and Electronic Engineering. In the SCA I have served as the Baronial Herald for the past two years.

One of the characteristics that differentiates the SCA from other medieval groups is the range of activities it has to offer, from fighting and archery to embroidery and weaving and everything in between. I would encourage people to broaden their horizons and go and try something new. It has been commented that many people specialise in just one interest; an art or science or something martial, often to the detriment of other skills and interests.

So go and pick up a bow and learn to shoot, or get someone to teach you embroidery, or start making that pair of shoes you have always been too scared to start making before. Remember nothing is as intimidating as it looks, and are often more fun and rewarding than you expect.

Yours in Service,
Peregrine Flamstead

DEVIOUS DEVICES

A hastily-scrawled note found on the body of a courier of unknown origin who had apparently been waylaid by bandits:

Your Excellency Arnfinr,

As per your request, I have assayed the forces of the enemy and those of the various Baronies, shires, cantons, households et al, within the Kingdom, and have grave news.

It would appear that Your Excellency shall have every opportunity to have at the enemy, for their infiltration of mainland Lochac has been all but complete. We have found that, of the many able-bodied combatants in the Kingdom, only some few have maintained their freedom from the usurpment of Gotmarkians, or their familiars.

Your agents have also revealed that the final death throes of the coffers of Southron Gaard are nigh, and that currency within the Barony has been so salted as to be worthless. Also sighted in the scribes quarters of Southron Gaard, amongst the harpy filth, was a document entitled "Magna Carta".

Your Excellencies, poisoners have been positioned to have the greatest impact upon the enemy at wells and granaries, and the sappers have prepared all relevant fortifications, should Your Excellency give the command to strike.

BELLIGERENCE - A missive received from Their Excellencies of Ynys Fawr

Noble Cousins,

We demand that you cease and desist in your machinations upon Ynys Fawr, and the Innocents of Mainland Lochac, remove your claim to the wastes of Terra Antarctica, and dispatch your Cartographer from this life, poste-haste.

Should you fail in this simple task, we shall reveal the depths of your Baronial mismanagement to Their Majesties, move Our Navy to bring all your lands under Embargo, and strike down all who wouldst cross Our path.

Shouldst this not dissuade you from further unwholesome excursions, we will annexe your lands within Our lands and provide you to Their Majesties to be judged.

We Remain,
Arnfinr and Aine
Baron and Baroness of Ynys Fawr

To the most excellent lord Ædward, by right of arms, King of Lochac. The barons of Lochac insular oriens, along with certain others of the continental lands, Your faithful subjects, wishing to observe their oaths and the fidelity due to the Crown, wish health, and tender their lawful service with all due respect and honour.

As it is plain from much experience that one amongst Your barons has made divers declarations concerning the dispositions of our lands to an over-weening ambition, intending all the mischief that they can do, not only to us, but to your whole kingdom, we wish Your Majesty to know that we intend to preserve the peacefulness of the realm and safety of Your many subjects in the said lands with all our might, as the fidelity which we owe to You demands, proposing to overthrow all those who are not our enemies but Yours too, and the foes of the whole of Your kingdom; and if any other statement is made to You respecting these matters, do not believe it; for we shall always be found Your faithful subjects.

And we, Bartholomew and katherine, Baron and Baroness of Southron Gaard, Inigo and Cecilia, Baron and Baroness of Idhafn, at the request of the rest, have, for us and for them too who have declared for our cause, sworn to take the field at Festival to prevail against those who would remove our ancient rights.

We ask all those who support or grant succour to our Just Cause to mark themselves on the field of war with a red band or ribbon or torse, or such other red marking as leaves no doubt in the minds of the beholder of their accession to our part in the pending conflict, lending dismay and confusion to the Thin and Benighted Ranks of those who would stand against us.

Affirmed this xxvith day of February in the lands of Lochac insular oriens.

SCANZ Representative Needed

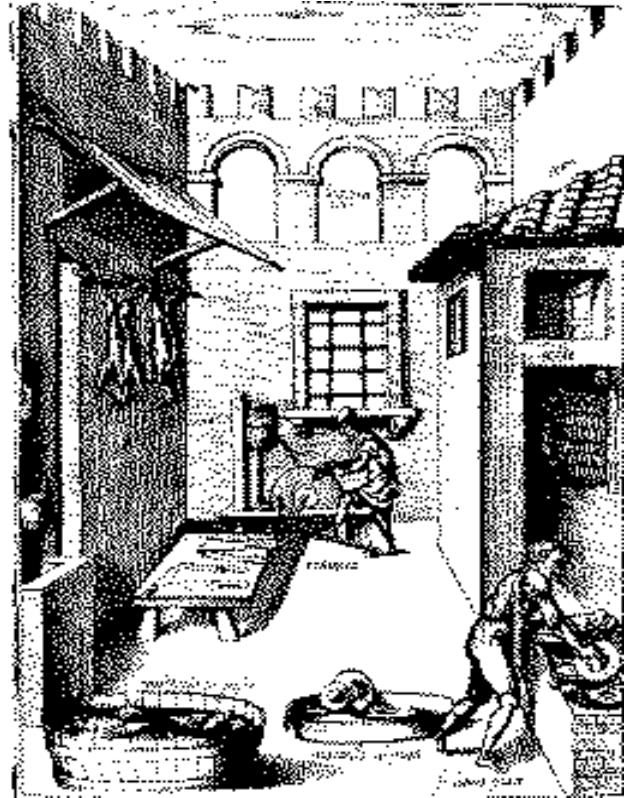

The SCANZ committee needs a second representative from Southron Gaard to replace Alasdair Muckart, whose term has ended late last year.

Terms are for three years, and the job requires regular email access and a good working knowledge of the SCA. The ability to travel inter-island once a year for the AGM is important, but not absolutely essential. A good understanding of how the SCA operates and a head for organisation are also important. This is a position in the mundane organisation and has no bearing on, or requirement for "in-game" rank.

Interested parties can contact the committee with expressions of interest or questions on committee@sca.org.nz. Information on the SCANZ can be found at www.sca.org.nz.

The applicant will ultimately be selected by a vote of the Southron Gaard membership.

Upcoming Reeve Position

Applications for the position of Baronial Reeve are now open and will close June 1st. Anyone interested in the positions should write a brief application, including their full contact details and experience relevant to the position, and send it to the Kingdom Exchequer, exchequer@sca.org.au with copies to the Baronial Reeve reeve@sg.sca.org.nz,

the Baronial seneschal seneschal@sg.sca.org.nz

and the Baron and Baroness.
b&b@sg.sca.org.nz

The successful applicant will be chosen by the Kingdom Exchequer, and announced shortly after June 1st.

REEVE- Stepping down seeking a replacement

HERALD:

Attended the February muster; heralded the heavy tourney and the children's boffer. I have been working on the new Baronial Herald's tabard. Received two name and device submissions from members of the populace.

MARSHAL: No apology, no report.

LISTS: There was a four person tourney at the muster. Can't remember who won.

A&S:

A&S now held concurrently with Medieval Stuff Evening instead of a separate date. Open A&S this month.

Is anyone interested in having any specific classes at this time? If so, I need to know what class you'd like to see. I also need volunteers to teach.

Baronial Anniversaries – only one entrant for A&S Championship thus far. If you're interested in entering this year, you MUST have doco submitted at least 72 hours before the event. PLEASE contact me asap if you plan to enter the championship so I can arrange for appropriate judges.

Library books: $94.50 in baronial library fund. Hope to buy the outstanding issues of Compleat Anachronist that are missing from our library with this money. Motion to vote.

CHRONICLER: FTT went out with stuff about St Kessog in. It would be good if we could get an older (00 or 02 version of Publisher)

CONSTABLE: Nothing to report

WEBWRIGHT:

Usual updates, CF photos online, new <http://kessog.sca.org.nz> site up and running, and kessog@sca.org.nz mailing list -- 25 people on it thus far, about half local.

Tried a wee experiment to increase FTT readership, seems to be working (March issue 60+ in first week out, compared to Feb's 45 or so in same period).

QUARTERMASTER:

Received Back Baronial Belongings from CF. No Marshal's Gear, which is with the Marshal.

Also received an extra box of Hire Garb and a red barrier- Sigurd and Eleanora's?

Typed inventory and sent to Webwright.

Took First Aid box to incipient Chirurgeon, with the intention that he retains it.

Obtained four red oven pads to donate to the Barony.

ACTION: Vote held to approve $60 for hire garb holding plastic boxes- All in favour

ARCHERY CAPTAIN

1. We've had archery practice twice in the last month with an attendance of 4-6 archers at each practice.

2. Attended the Baronial Muster on February 26. I brought along some archery equipment, and spoke with interested gentles regards archery and the SCA in general.

3. Attended the inaugural event of the proto-College of St Kessog in Dunedin on March 5. Spoke to people down there regards Archery activities in the society. It sounds as if the College will be well equipped to run their own archery practices down in Dunedin: they have a gentle who is knowledgeable about archery to run things (a former NZ junior champion, apparently), and a potential source of gear - Otago University had an archery club that is now defunct, leaving behind a significant supply of bows, arrows, etc, which St Kessog is hoping to be able to access for its own use...

4. In the process of constructing new target butts for the Barony's use (one down, at least two to go). Currently taking donation of materials for construction, and doing an excellent job of sticking to budget (which is precisely $0.00).

5. We've scheduled an IKAC shoot for next practice (Sunday 19/3). Would like to see this become a monthly occurrence, but will wait for feedback from the populace before acting on this.

Future Plans: Still need to set up targets for the Baronial Archery champion shoot at the Baronial Anniversary event this month.

B&B:

* Received much excellent feedback about CF, congrats to all concerned

* Attended St Kessog inaugural event, 25 people there, good set of officers appointed, expecting several at BA

* Discussions with various re: Festival logistics and alliances

* Ordered/paid for platters, now arrived

* Attended February muster, good turnout, especially new faces/ungarbed folk come for a look, boffer very popular

* Started Lochac boffer discussion group including current Heavy Deputy Marshal (his idea)

* Preparation for BA going well, getting letters of intent and also recommendations, need more of course

- Seamsters, singing

DEMO REQUESTS: A wedding in August, mentioned the fee, haven't heard back

EVENT REPORTS:

CF:- No report as yet

FEBRUARY MUSTER:-We had a muster, it was fun. There was a tourney and a boffer tourney. They were good. In future, checking that the venue has toilets is recommended.

BA:- Planning is going well with disappointing bookings at this stage. Tourney and Boffers are under control. Daniel has offered to run a treasure hunt for children.

YULE:- 1st July, 1 week before coronation. Theme: Yule on the Levant. $16 adults, $8 children. Gavin's bid Accepted.

BAL D' ARGENT:- We got the Bid! Thinking of changing dates to September 16/17. With the tourney do we want to make this our quarterly event? There was discussion re the use of the Laurel Fund for teachers, even for related classes such as music. WEA has four rooms so there can be class streams.

Meredith is scavenging for St Kessogs- garb, fabric, feast gear etc. Would like to hand it over at BA.

GENERAL BUSINESS

The Platters have arrived. They are very nice.

Serving utensils for High table are being hunted

Page Stuff is becoming more of an issue- stuff taking place at events almost needs a co-coordinator.

A CF Ticky box and hints for young players sheet would be nice. No one wants to do it.

Baronial Tokens and Awards- Should there be a physical representation for them? Is it appropriate? It was intended to make badges at the start. Pins would be better.

ACTION: Bastian to be asked to cast samples, discuss the cost of this with him, also that of enameling. All in favour.

Feast kits for travelers- including an identifying list with each kit? Labelled objects? The investment would be mainly time. Lost property could be loaned to new comers

ACTION:- Cat to make up a couple of sample bags as an experiment

Meeting closed: 8.25 pm.

Seamsters

Please check the mailing list for the whereabouts of the next meeting

Everyone is welcome, especially newcomers. Bring along whatever needlework you are currently working on (does not need to be period), or come on over for a chat.
